

INT8/ID2012 Ubiquitous Computing

Grading criteria for essay/individual report

Grade
F	Some essay requirements are not met	The essay contains uncredited text or graphics not belonging to the author	The essay contains too many or too large quotes	The essay displays overmuch use of paraphrasing, i.e. words are altered to cover the fact that the underlying argumentation is taken from another text.
Fx	The essay is graded F, but is expected to be mendable and therefore able to reach grade E within a reasonable amount of time and work
	For a passing grade E (and higher), all essay requirements are met.
	Argumentation	Reflection	Understanding	Concise
E	The argumentation is acceptable		The essay shows that the author understands the topic
D		The essay reflects on at least one issue in some detail
C	The argumentation is good	The essay reflects on some of the issues in more detail	The essay shows that the author understands the topic well	The essay contains little superfluous or irrelevant material
B	The argumentation is strong
A			The essay has flawless argumentation and thorough discussion of all relevant issues	